

Petition in favour of the Laird of M'Intosh, to obtain a Protection for him; which he granted me, and gave it to Charles Cathcart, then Groom of his Bed-chamber; and ordered him to deliver it into my Hands, that I might give it to the Laird of M'Intosh. This was but one Testimony of several Marks of Goodness his Majesty was pleased to bestow upon me while the King was at Hanover; so I hope I shall feel that the same compassionate Blood runs in your Royal Highness's Veins. Major-General Campbell told me, that he had the Honour to acquaint your Royal Highness, that he was sending me to Fort William, and that he begged of your Royal Highness to order a Litter to be made for me to carry me to Fort Augustus, as I am in such a Condition, that I am not able to stand, walk, or ride. I am, with the utmost Submission and profound Respect,

S I R,
 Your Royal Highness's most obedient,
 and most faithful humble Servant,
 J. LOVAT.

June 21. Yesterday eight judges went to the town-hall on St. Margaret's hill, Southwark, where they found a true bill against the earl of Cromarty, lord Kilmarnoek, and lord Balmorino, for High Treason; and adjourn'd 'till tomorrow, at 9 of the clock.

June 22. Orders are given for those ships of the royal navy which are unfit for service, to be rebuilt with all expedition.

We hear the following battalions of the British troops are to be sent to Flanders; viz. Howard's, Douglass's, Huske's, Johnson's; these are to be sent from England.—Second battalion of royal Scots, Sempill's, Pulteney's; these from Scotland.—To be commanded by lieutenant-general Sir John Ligonier, major-general Howard, and brigadiers Douglas and Mordaunt.—Already in Flanders, major-general earl of Rothes, brigadier Bligh.

July 3. By letters from Leghorn we have an account, that the king of Sardinia has levied 200,000 livres on the city of Novi, belonging to the Genoese; and that they are apprehensive many of the palaces about that city will be demolished, in case the owners do not pay directly the contributions they are laid under.

Provisions are very dear in Genoa, occasioned by the English men of war taking and intimidating the transports.

There is advice that the British squadron was actually put into Ferrol, and was blocked up in that port by admiral Martin's squadron.

All the Roman Catholic peers are to have circular letters sent them, to attend the trials of the rebel lords in the tower, in order to sit and vote, provided that they take the oaths, and make and subscribe the declaration required to be taken and subscribed by lords, in order to their sitting and voting.
